Always Keep a Good Attitude

'…meditate on these things…and the God of peace will be with you.' Phil 4:8,9

When you're going through bad times, your goal should be to keep a good attitude. And with God's help you can. Dr Viktor Frankl, a Nazi Holocaust camp survivor, said: 'If a prisoner felt that he could no longer endure the realities of camp life, he found a way out in his mental life—an invaluable opportunity to dwell in the spiritual domain, the one that the SS was unable to destroy. Spiritual life strengthened the prisoner, helped him to adapt, and thereby improved his chances of survival.' Here is some practical advice on keeping a good attitude in bad times: 1) Always believe the best about others, but don't get bent out of shape when they disappoint you. Nobody is perfect, including you. Just be grateful for the people that bring joy and endeavour to be counted among them. 2) When you are tempted to retaliate, judge or become impatient, say to yourself, 'This is an opportunity for me to model a great attitude for the glory of God.' You say, 'But this person is driving me crazy.' Then refuse to be a 'passenger' and go along with them. Take back the wheel, get into the driver's seat of your life, and determine which direction you'll go and what attitude you'll have. The Bible says: '…whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things…and the God of peace will be with you.'
